Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks

The replacement appendix of clams filed 12-4-02 in response to the 11-8-02 remand has been entered and considered. The application has been forwarded to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences for decision on appeal.

The substitue appendix of clams is substrantually correct, except that the words --such that-- should have been inserted after "microprocessor means" in claim 72 line 4.
